

American Legion Riders of Honors Award

The American Legion Riders of Honor Award is a distinction that is considered to be the highest form of award that is given to a American Legion Riders member, This award connotes that the recipient has gone far above and beyond the call of duty for the American Legion Riders organization with their dedication, drive and determination in helping to make the American Legion Riders prosper and grow. Only those people who have met these criteria should be nominated for this award.

1. One nomination per state per year to be forwarded to the ALROH Board. If more than one chapter in a state has a nomination, then a board of ALR members consisting of at least one member from each chapter should convene to decide which nomination it will forward for consideration for the year.
2. The nominated person should be a full American Legion Riders Member for a minimum of 3 years.
3. A letter outlining the qualifications and accomplishments of the nominee must be sent to the confirmation board, which is comprised of past ALROH winners. No nomination with a postmark date later than April 30 will be considered. There will be a maximum of 4 winners of the Honor Patch awarded per year. All determinations of the confirmation board will be final.
4. Winners of the American Legion Riders of Honors patch will be announced at the American Legion Riders National Party. (To be held Aug. 19-22 2004 in Fon du Lac, Wisconsin.)
5. Send all nominations to:
